The Register acknowledges pleasant calls last Friday from Mr. J. M. Morris and Hon. Walter L. Hensley, who had driven over from Farmington to spend the day with the Baptist folk on the Arcadia Heights. Mr. Morris tells us that he has just completed re-building his home, which was recently partially destroyed by fire. He expects to pay a visit to his old home in Virginia next month. He was accompanied in his trip to the valley by his daughter and some other ladies. With Mr. Hensley were his charming wife and handsome baby boy and girl.
